At the end of last year, I drafted a resolution to declare June 22nd "Illinois Community Living Day," and asked Representative Will Guzzardi if he would offer the resolution to the Illinois House of Representatives. June 22nd was chosen because it's the date of the Supreme Court Olmstead decision, in 1999. This is the case which led to the Ligas decision in Illinois which, in turn, is the reason some of you have received PUNS pull letters this year and in prior years. Get ready to celebrate as we approach the 20th anniversary of Olmstead in the year 2019. Feel free to begin celebrating early 😊
